

Make every ounce of effort count.

Personalized Coaching

A one-on-one discussion of your natural talents.

Find your unique glide pattern. Work one-on-one with a Kolbe Certified Consultant to understand your Kolbe A™ Index report and how it applies to you, personally and professionally. Throughout the discussion, you gain concrete strategies for reducing stress and enhancing your individual productivity.

Career Guidance

Match your natural talents to a career.

Find your fit. Learn to apply your natural talents to your life's work. In a focused coaching session with a Kolbe Certified Consultant, you gain a list of career options, concrete language for communicating your talents in a job interview, and a clear strategy for evaluating career options.

Launch your family.

Family Coaching

Bring your family closer together.

In this uniquely crafted coaching session, each person learns his or her special contribution to the family unit.

Benefit for parents:

The family coaching session provides parents with a more intimate understanding of themselves and their children. They also gain a wealth of new techniques and tools to better foster the distinct talents of each child.

Benefit for children:

Above all, children gain an understanding of their unique natural talents. This knowledge is not only a confidence boost, but also a catalyst for greater success in the classroom and at home.

Relationship Coaching

Take your relationship to the next level.

This coaching session—uniquely designed for couples—offers a more intimate understanding of you and your significant other. An explanation of your Kolbe R™ Index results by a Certified Kolbe Consultant will also help you evaluate the expectations you each have for each other. Ultimately, this session will spur your growth as individuals and as an effective team.
